

LESSON 1

INTRODUCTIONS

● KEY POINT INTRODUCTIONS

Why do great athletes have coaches?

Have you ever been coached in your professional or personal life?

What should a coach do?

Do senior executives get business coaching in your company?

Hello my name is John Johnson. I will be your English teacher. I am from Canada. I teach students who want to learn English. Good luck with this lesson. I will talk to you later.
John Johnson.

Definition

Introductions: Introducing yourself.

Time 30 Minutes

Vocabulary Introductions

Key Points What do you do?

Grammar Present Continuous

Objectives To introduce people

Review Present Continuous

● VOCABULARY AND EXPRESSION BUILDERS

To travel to go to a place

I travel to Canada.

To speak to communicate

You speak English.

A lot a large quantity

I travel a lot.

A house a place to live

I live in a house.

To build to make

I am building a house.

To introduce to meet

I am introducing Paul.

A pilot the person who flies an airplane

He is a pilot.

A teacher a person who instructs

We are teachers.

A webmaster a person who makes websites

She is a webmaster.

A lawyer a person who works in law

They are lawyers.

A company a business organization

I work for two companies.

● SENTENCE BUILDERS

Read out loud.

1. The pilot travels a lot.
2. He introduced the teacher.
3. The lawyer works for the company.
4. The house is built by the team.

● COMPREHENSION BUILDERS

Part 1

Jack Smith, Pilot

Hello, my name is Jack Smith. I am a pilot. I have to travel a lot so I have to speak English well.

Part 2

Janet Parker, Architect

Hello, I am Janet Parker. I am an architect. I design houses for people. I love my job.

Part 3

Paul Jones, Lawyer

Hello, my name is Paul Jones. I am an immigration lawyer. I work with people who want to immigrate to Canada.

Part 4

Laurie Richards, Webmaster

Hello my name is Laurie Richards and I build websites for many different companies. I work with images and text. I put all of this onto the web.

● SENTENCE BUILDERS

1 John Smith is a _____.

- a) pilot
- b) webmaster
- c) lawyer

2 Laurie Richards is a _____.

- a) pilot
- b) architect
- c) webmaster

3 Paul Jones _____.

- a) loves his job
- b) works with people who want to move to Canada
- c) puts texts to websites

4 Janet Parker _____.

- a) makes special house
- b) works with many different companies
- c) works in immigration

COMPREHENSION BUILDERS

Present continuous.

Use the present continuous do describe an action happening now.

Structure

Subject + to be (am are is) + present participle (verb + ing)

I am working.

You are working.

He is working.

We are working.

Negative

I am not working. /I'm not working.

Interrogative

Are you working tomorrow?

Complete the following sentences with the present continuous.

1. John Smith (to work) _____ on his presentation.
2. Peter Kent (to assist) _____ John with his presentation.
3. The account manager (to talk) _____ on the phone.
4. I (to learn) _____ English.
5. The company (to propose) _____ free service on its products this week.
6. They (to sell) _____ the product to the new client.
7. They (to look) _____ for new business.
8. The competition (to give) _____ poor service.
9. The transport company (to offer) _____ a bonus to the account manager.
10. The client (to consult) _____ a competitor.