

LESSON 5

AN INTERVIEW

KEY POINT QUESTIONS

Consider the following
Do you like ask questions?
How do you get information?

Journalist: a person who writes for work.

Getting information is important.
How do you get information?
Do you ask questions? Do you ask?

To find out: to get information

Objectives How to get information

Time 60 Minutes

Vocabulary Questions

Key Points How to get information

Grammar Vrrbs with ed

Review Lesson 4

I will	To read
You will	Questions
He will	Soccer
We will	Answers
They will	Before
Newspapers

PHRASE BUILDERS 1

I will work.
You will see the doctor.
He will play.
We will meet Monday.
They will work Saturday.
I will get the newspaper.

Jack will read the newspaper.
Sally has questions.
Jack has answers.
I will eat before work.
I work after I eat.

PHRASE BUILDERS 2

She reads the newspaper after work.
Sally has questions and answers.
Mike will see Susan next Sunday.
Jack reads the New York Times before work.
She reads the newspaper to answer questions.

TEXT

An interview

Jack Smith is a photographer.

Jack will have an interview with a journalist from the New York Times tomorrow. He is preparing for it now. He will meet with a colleague to practice. He will go to see the journalist tomorrow.

Possible questions

What questions will the journalist ask?

He will ask what do you do?

He will ask who do you work for?

He will ask where do you work?

Preparing answers

What will Jack Smith say to the journalist?

He will say he is a photographer.

He will say he works for a newspaper.

He will say he works in Switzerland, Austria, Germany and Poland.

The New York Times interview

The interview with Jack Smith will be on the net on Monday. To see the interview go to www.nyt.com and click on Jack Smith. You will find the article in the newspaper on Sunday.

QUESTIONS

- 1 Jack Smith is _____.
A. an engineer
B. a photographer
C. a journalist
2. He is preparing for _____.
A. a job
B. meeting
C. an interview
3. Jack Smith will say that _____.
A. he works for a newspaper
B. he is a journalist
C. he works for the New York Times
4. The article will be on www.nyt.com _____.
A. Saturday
B. Sunday
C. Monday

GRAMMAR

Example:

I will see Jack tomorrow.

I will not see Jack tomorrow.

Will I see Jack tomorrow?

Structure:

Subject + will + verb. (Statement)

Subject + will + not + verb. (Negative)

Subject + won't + verb. (Negative)

Will + subject + verb. (interrogative)

Examples:

Mike and Susan will go to the company.

Will you work next week?

Alex and George will not go on vacation.

The agency will not go to Cape Town next month.

1 I _____ have a new job next week. I will start Monday.

A. will

B. won't

C. will not

2 _____ work this weekend. She will not have her computer.

A. Susan won't

B. Susan will

C. Will Susan

3 _____ go to the concert tonight?

A. Jack will

B. Will Jack

C. Jack will not

4 _____ go skiing with friends. It will be fun.

A. They won't

B. They will

C. Will they

5 _____ check on the net?

A. My boss will

B. Will Susan

C. Jack will not

6 _____ read the New York Times tomorrow.

A. Won't we

B. We will

C. Will we

7 _____ visit Germany next month.

A. Adam will

B. Will the team

C. Will not Mike

GRAMMAR

8 Jane _____. She can't.

- A. won't go
- B. will go
- C. go will

9 _____ check her camera?

- A. The photographer will
- B. Will the photographer
- C. The photographer will not

10 _____ be good. I hear they are very good.

- A. The concert won't
 - B. The concert will
 - C. Will the concert
- 