

LESSON 8

GETTING YOUR DREAM JOB

● KEY POINT GETTING THE BEST JOB

Do you work?
Do you have a great job?
Do you want to change jobs?

Blog: A public journal
job: A great job

We all have different ideas of a dream job. Some want to work in the arts. Some in business. Read the blog about dream jobs..

Time 60 Minutes
Vocabulary Saying hello
Key Points Getting started
Grammar Present Simple To be
Objectives Getting started
Review Warm up

● VOCABULARY

To dream To imagine That is a great dream job. To read To speak
He is reading her text.

A blog A journal
Jack is reading the blog.

A coffee machine To make coffee They talk at the coffee machine.

To compare To look at two things They will not compare the jobs.

An entrepreneur A person who invents He is not an IT entrepreneur.

An orchestra Music group The orchestra will play Mozart.

A violin A music instrument She plays the violin.

A chef A person who works in a kitchen He is a chef in the restaurant.
my his her its our your their Belongs to It is my computer.

To ask To request
He is not asking for food.

To work at it To make an effort We are working at it.
To go for it To risk Mike says go for it.

● SENTENCES

Allison reads a book with a coffee.
I dream to become an entrepreneur.
She plays the violin in the orchestra.
She works as a chef.
Janet asked to go to work.

TEXT

3 sections

A blog: Getting your dream job

George is at work. Yesterday, George read a blog online about jobs. The blog is about dream jobs. He is talking about the blog with his friends Mike and Fiona at the coffee machine in the office. They are comparing their dream jobs.

George says his dream job is being an entrepreneur. Fiona said her dream job is playing violin in an orchestra. Mike said his dream job is being a chef. Their dream jobs are all different.

George said his dream job is in California. Fiona said her dream job is in Berlin.

Mike said his dream job is in Miami.

Their dream jobs are all in different countries.

George asked Fiona and Mike how do we get our dream jobs.

Fiona said you have to work at it. Start small and make it grow. Mike said go for it. What is your dream job?

QUESTIONS

Content questions

- 1) What is George reading?
 - a) He is reading about a dream job.
 - b) He is reading about playing the violin.
 - c) He is reading about being a chef.

- 2) Fiona wants to .
 - a) be a chef
 - b) be an entrepreneur
 - c) play the violin

- 3) Mike wants to live in .
 - a) California
 - b) Berlin
 - c) Miami

- 4) Mike said .
 - a) you have to work at it
 - b) go for it
 - c) start small and make it grow

GRAMMAR

Grammar Point using my your his her our their Sample

That is your work. That is its wheels. Explanation

A possessive adjective indicates possession before a noun it is related to the subject. Structure

My house, your car (singular), his friend, her job, its engine, our coffee, your computers (plural), their solution

Examples

That's my project.

That's your project.

That's his project.

That's her project.

That's its project.

That's our project.

That's your project.

That's their project.

Questions

1) That is _____ solution. It belongs to them.

A. our B. their C. his

2) Is that _____ coat? Yes it belongs to Janet.

A. its B. their C. her

3) I think it is _____ hotel. Yes it is the hotel we reserved.

A. our B. its C. their

4) I am buying a car. That car there will be _____ new car.

A. her B. my C. your

5) Mike: I will present tomorrow.

Janet: Ok I will go to _____ presentation.

A. your B. their C. his

6) I see the new employee. Is that computer?

A. their B. her C. my

7) I am going with Jack to the office. We are taking _____ car.

A. its B. their C. his

8) He is leaving for his business trip. If he is not careful he will forget _____ presentation.

A. its B. his C. their

9) Is that your dog? _____ food is ready.

A. My B. Its C. Their

10) Mike and Janet are here. That is _____ car.

A. their B. our C. Its