

LESSON PREPARATION

INTERMEDIATE UNIT ELEVEN

VOCABULARY AND EXPRESSION BUILDERS

Restaurant Reviews Vocabulary

Quest: A search.

The quest for the solution was impressive.

Pallet: The taste in the mouth.

To be a chef you have to have a good pallet.

Lean: Not fat.

French food is lean.

Traditional: Like old times.

They have traditional Italian cuisine.

Troops: Soldiers.

Troops brought back the pizza from Italy during the Second World War.

In the meantime: At the same time.

She was doing a law degree. In the meantime, her husband was working.

Faithful: To be true.

She is faithful to her company.

Pastry: Ingredients for cakes, pies, and quiches.

There is a lot of pastry in Italian cuisine.

Clientele: Customers.

The company's clientele are demanding.

SPEAKING ENGLISH

Sentences (read out loud)

He is on a quest to find a great restaurant.

They prefer traditional food although it is not too lean.

The clientele is faithful to the food at the Italian Restaurant.

The troops are training and in the meantime, they are studying.

TECHNIQUE BUILDERS

Punctuation apostrophe (' , ') colon (:)
semicolon (;) comma (,) dashes (— , — , —) hyphen (-) exclamation mark (!)
full stop/period (.) question mark (?)
quotation marks (' ' , " ") slash/stroke (/)

WRITING BUILDERS

Expressions

All your eggs in one basket.

You risk everything.

They decided to take a chance on the project. They put all their eggs in one basket.

In hot water.

To be in trouble.

He was in hot water with his boss when he could not find the report.