

LESSON PREPARATION

ADVANCED UNIT NINE

VOCABULARY AND EXPRESSION BUILDERS

Incentives and Perks Vocabulary Kids Children.

The kids loved the trip.

In essence Basically.

In essence, it is a good deal.

A package A group of things.

They were offered a package deal.

Perk rewards for a position or job.

His best perk is the company car.

Bonuses The extras offered to the employees.

The senior executives get great bonuses.

Golf Club Membership: To subscribe to a golf club.

He has a golf club membership at the Westwood Golf Club.

Price tag The label with the cost.

The price tag indicated the cost is high.

Gold card holder To have a Visa Gold Card.

He is a gold card member.

Suites (pronounced sweet) A collection like a collection of rooms in a hotel.

The hotel has luxury suites.

SPEAKING ENGLISH

Sentences

In essence, the kids had a great time on the trip.

She took the whole bonus package from the company.

The price tag for the luxury weekend in the hotel suite was high.

The hotel has great luxury suites.

TECHNIQUE BUILDERS (UK versus USA English)

At/on/in (time)

At for time of day: We arrive at 2 PM.

On for days and dates: The meeting is on Tuesday.

In for longer periods.: I will see you in a month.

We also say at night, at the moment, at Christmas

WRITING ENGLISH BUILDERS

Expressions

Level playing field

Dating back from the 1980's this term refers to fair competition. On a level playing field, no side has an advantage.

"They wanted to negotiate the contract on a level playing field."

Murphy's Law

Generally meaning "if anything can go wrong, it will".

"The laptop broke before the presentation. It was Murphy's law."